

THE MEANING OF LIFE

According to Different Schools of Philosophy by Anna Vital

prehistoric
Natural Pantheism
care for the Nature

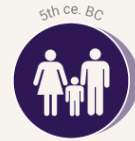

prehistoric
Theism
follow God's will

9th ce. BC
Daoism
follow the way, but no one can tell what it is

6th ce. BC
Determinism
accept that everything is pre-determined

5th ce. BC
Confucianism
fulfill your duties to others

5th ce. BC
Mohism
love people impartially

5th ce. BC
Solipsism
since only you exist, you know it

4th ce. BC
Cynicism
be self-sufficient

4th ce. BC
Hedonism
have pleasure now

4th ce. BC
Platonism
acquire maximum knowledge

4th ce. BC
Legalism
get practical skills

4th ce. BC
Epicureanism
free yourself from pain

3rd ce. BC
Quietism
asking this question leads to more confusion

3rd ce. BC
Aristotelianism
be a good person

3rd ce. BC
Stoicism
be dispassionate, pursue perfection through reason

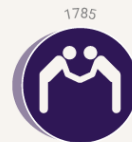

late 1300
Modern Humanism
act in self-interest and common good

early 1600s
Subjectivism
life's meaning is different for each person

1689
Liberalism
defend individual liberty

1785
Kantianism
do as you would have others do (your duty)

1862
Nihilism
do as you wish, life has no meaning

1870
Pragmatism
bring more value to humans

1920s
Logical Positivism
life has no meaning until you give it one

1940s
Existentialism
make decisions and be positive

1942
Absurdism
stop trying to find a meaning, just live

...ism
to be continued
we add a new philosophy every century life has ...

